The diagram illustrates the legislative process for highlighted bills. It begins with a dark blue box at the top labeled "Highlighted Bills". An arrow points down to a light blue box labeled "Example Federal Bill". From there, an arrow points down to a light green box labeled "Example Local Bill". Another arrow points down to a light red box labeled "Example State Bill". A subsequent arrow points down to another light blue box labeled "Example Federal Bill". From this box, an arrow points down to a light red box labeled "Example State Bill". Another arrow points down to a final light red box labeled "Example State Bill". At the bottom, a legend identifies the colors: a red square for "Highlighted", a white square for "Local Event", a white square for "Local", a white square for "State", and a white square for "Federal".
